Limassol, Agios Tychon

830 m² Covered | 4 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom

Description

The villa is set upon a mountain side of Agios Tychonas near Armenohori village of the eastern Limassol suburbs. Perhaps no other neighborhood will open to you such breathtaking vistas and the entire coastline of Limassol. The main concept of the project is to allow you to capture the immense scopes of Cyprus and at the same time to feel that you are on the island where you may see the horizon from any point. The surrounding majestic views equal the supremacy of a luxury home. The very nature of the mountainous area and a very good location of the project have inspired our architects to construct a complex of villas, which from a distance seems weightless and even just soaring above the ground. The villa has a lower ground floor that may be used as a relaxation area. It merges amongst the large sun-deck areas of the infinity pool and landscaped gardens below allowing you to unwind whilst entering your home from the upper level whilst the sunshine filters down, escalating from the upper floors and creating an environment both soothing and composed. On the ground floor is the living/ dining area, a separate
